

The Parable of the Sower

“Behold, a sower went out to sow. And as he sowed, some seed fell by the wayside; and the birds of the air devoured it. Some seeds fell on stony places, where they did not have much earth; and they immediately sprang up because they had no depth of earth. But when the sun was up they were scorched, and because they had no root they withered away. And some fell among thorns, and the thorns sprang up and choked them. But others fell on good ground and yielded a crop that sprang up, increased and produced: some thirtyfold, some sixty, and some a hundred. He who has ears to hear, let him hear!” from Matthew 13, Mark 4, and Luke 8
