

The Parable of the Tenacious Widow Activity Page 1

The widow in the parable kept asking, didn't she? She was tenacious. She did not stop asking or give up. Have you ever been tenacious about something? What have you kept on practicing, trying, or doing without giving up? (Or, if you are inspired by the widow to become more tenacious, what do you intend to be tenacious about, beginning today?) Draw or write about it here:

Keep on asking, trying, and practicing! Be tenacious!
Don't give up!
